Koy is a Summa Cum Laude at being cray - creative and crazy. She has a knack for making five-minute posters (which get lots of likes!) with her best friend, Photoshop. She’s been nocturnal ever since Ateneo came into her life. Her Facebook profile is mostly about dogs and not her. She likes to live dangerously, but always follows her curfew so she can cook her family’s dinner - you have to try her lamb chop steak! Her magis is truly something to be reckoned with. Watch out, world! (J. Ballester)
