I'd like to think that the life I'll live after graduation will be a lot like my four years in Ateneo. College came with frustrations, struggles, and breakdowns, but also victories and accomplished goals. I remember crying in a branding class because I didn't know who I was both as a person and as a designer. Now, I am glad and a bit surprised that I was able to push through. All I hope is that life will turn out the way college did—like a rollercoaster. If I did it before, I can do it again.

Thank you, Ateneo. I will forever nurture and cherish the hope and the love that you helped me become familiar with.
