

MINOR IN LITERATURE

Khristine D. Corpus

Khristine is the best friend that everyone should have. She'll take you to the corners of your smiles, to the highest of your hopes, and to the most special places your heart has ever known. Look into her eyes and you'll find yourself mesmerized. She's a sweet, sweet girl full of superlatives. If you happened to be one of her few close friends, then you would know how it feels to be in the presence of someone so special – you would want to keep her for the rest of your life.

DOUBLE MAJOR IN AB ECONOMICS

Claudine Nicole H. Cu

Claud stands out as one of the tallest girls in the batch, but what really makes her remarkable is how she consistently strives for greater heights – in academics, sports, or even friendship. First impressions are usually “quiet” and “shy” but with her endearing sweet smile, warm disposition, and love for spontaneous adventures, it's hard not to get drawn in. If there's anyone who I'm especially thankful to have met in Ateneo, it's Claud, and I'm lucky to call her my best friend (L. Ong).
