“To see the world, things dangerous to come to, to see behind walls, to draw closer, to find each other and to feel. That is the purpose of life.” (The Secret Life of Walter Mitty)

Four years ago, I left the place I called home, but it's alright since I found a new one anyway. Thank you, Ateneo, for being my home away from home. The journey up to the hill was tough, but it made me a better person, and molded me into who I am today. Now, as I continue on my journey down from the hill this time, like Rizal, I will look back with pride and say that I spent many happy, in fact the happiest, years of my life here.
