

Gerard S. Austria

I've been in Ateneo since I was 5 years old. 17 years of Ateneo education, being true blue. And what can I say? 'Ang sarap maging Atenista.' My stay here in Ateneo has a lot of ups and downs. It's been a roller coaster ride but with it came so many lessons learned. Being a student-athlete for more than half my stay here also helped mold me into what I am today. Friends turn into families, values are learned, and I will forever cherish the memories from this school. All for God's Greater Glory.

Alain Lorenzo C. Aycardo

He's one who gets enough sleep, good grades, time to play his sport and stay fit, and leisure with friends and family. How Enzo does it, I have no clue, but that's just something to admire- that in this rapid-paced world you still get to meet someone who values the things we're most prone to sacrifice for something instant but rarely worthwhile. It's quite beautiful to share the same appreciation for intangible things that will remain with you forever.
(M. Pimentel)