

MINOR IN FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT

Dominique Raphaella Anne T. Tan

The moments in our lives may be fleeting, but the memories we hold on to, the strength and resilience we gain from overcoming obstacles, and the way our lives are touched by everyone that we meet never leave us.

For the countless memories that continue to make me smile and that I will always cherish, for the struggles that have taught me to push myself beyond what I thought possible, for the people who have shown me the value of life and friendship – thank you, Ateneo.

MINOR IN FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT

Isabella Louise L. Tan

Though my last four years were full ups and downs, I wouldn't change a thing. My stay opened my eyes to the good in the world, showing me things worth my passion and hard work. I was blessed with friends who make me laugh until my stomach hurt, and with lessons that remind me of my ability to go beyond my own limitations. So thank you, Ateneo. You were a wonderful and much-needed surprise.
