

MINOR IN HEALTH AND DEVELOPMENT

Melody Hope L. Lee Yu

Melody may well be one of the best friends you'll have, if you're lucky enough. She is ceaselessly patient and composed even during the toughest of times. Melody's compassion and thoughtfulness makes her a friend you can always rely on. Despite her many achievements, she remains to be unassuming and down to earth. Beneath her calm and cool is a fiery passion that continues to drive her to excellence and to service, through psychology and medicine. (V. Baguio)

Audrey Josephine B. Lee

Audrey is found in the little conversations you have about hell week or your frustrated attempts at adult life. It's disarming at first, her willingness to share in the niceties of your everyday, but the longer you are her friend, the more you realize she just genuinely cares for every facet of your average life. It may not seem much, but that simple act of recognition, whether it be in smiles or an offer of peanut butter toast, is what makes Audrey a mate to never forget. (M. Gana)
