

MINOR IN DECISION SCIENCE

Joshua Calvin T. Koa

College was where I found myself: beyond my comfort zone, through the motions of acads and orgs, with the people I've invested in.

Past the rolling deadlines, it'll be the people I'll remember the most. In chat screens. All-nighters. Hallways. Classrooms. Fields. Museums. Cafés. Restaurants. Parking lots. Streets. Car rides.

And in my memories; these made me who I am—and I hope I returned the favor.
