Here's to hoping there may never be limits to how you want to change the world. There may be obstacles, hardships and trials — but, hopefully, never a force that will dim your spark. I'll always believe you were built to be a fighter and to carry through. May this always inspire others and inspire you to keep going and be where you're meant to.

Here's to all the all-nighters and the sleeping-ins, the BEL-CTC runs and night classes, the over-cafeinated hell weeks, the ups and downs, and to the friends who have become family. Here's to everything that made me better everyday.

In my four years in the Ateneo, I found something I never thought I would — a home. And for that, I will always be grateful.
