An Atenean from prep to grade school, high school, and college. My years as a student have come to an end, and the greater journey is about to begin. On to the next chapter of my life! It's time to face bigger challenges, achieve things I've never even dreamed of, and show the world how my school has shaped me. I'm definitely ready! Thank you, Ateneo!

"With each step comes the decision to take another." I heard this quote from a friend. These words spoke to me, for I believed they encompassed the courage, responsibility, and humility needed to overcome life and its obstacles. As a new stage in life draws near, bringing with it new Herculean tasks, we must be able to push beyond the hardships and conquer ourselves. Sixteen wonderful years in Ateneo has taught me this. Now is the time to go down from the hill, and into the mountains!
