“May dulo pala ang langit.”

Juan Paolo A. Ancheta

Behind the silent wallflower facade, lies one of the most genuine and enthusiastic person I would have ever come to meet. Be it in sports, academics, or simply everything fun, this person manages to come high above the rest with his feet still flat on the ground. Being the best is nothing, but an understatement to describe who he is as a friend.

Until now, I still regret not knowing this guy earlier. You really wouldn't know what you're missing until you really get to know Paolo.
