They say college is that place where we are allowed to lose ourselves so we can find our place in the greater scheme of things. It's where we should discover who we truly are and unearth the passions that lie deep within us.

That's exactly what I did.

To you reading this: If you ever cross paths with my children, tell them this is how I spent my college years - keeping it real. <http://thoughtcatalog.com/cheska-samaco/2016/05/to-my-future-child-i-am-the-woman-i-am-today-because-of-you/>.
