

Angelo Luis E. Mercado

Another for the other. Taong makatao. In five years, I learned how it's like to be an Atenean. For my write-up, I want to give the spotlight not to myself, but to the people I've met.

My friends, the realities of our world will scare us and the beautiful dreams we had as I met you in our little world will be hard to achieve.

My advice? Look back. Give back. Love again.

Life won't take it easy on us. But within us is the "us" we want to believe in.

Because we've built our nest, and now we fly.

Manuel Marcelo F. Quiogue

"here are only two rules for being successful. One, figure out exactly what you want to do, and two, do it." (Mario Cuomo)