Of all the places I could have gone, I ended up here, and it has been both the best and the worst thing that has ever happened to me.

Waking each day to the sound of an alarm and ending with a Song for Mary at campus, the fresh coffee, the laughter and the scars, endless nights of sorrow and hopeful mornings with friends. Dear people, places, and the moments that intertwine them made this journey of my life a beautiful canvass now painted with memories and smiles as strokes and vivid colors. Atop the Hill and below it, I'll sing your songs and hum your tunes all my days to remember each stroke and color. For the Blue and White!
