

Angelo Rafael C. Reyno

Studying in Ateneo was like living in an anime. As the main character, I was blessed with the opportunity to cross paths with important people — my friends and professors — who would later on accompany me as I journeyed towards reaching the last episode. Without them, I wouldn't have made it this far. But just like all great anime, my story doesn't end with the last episode, graduation. It simply marks the beginning of a new journey — a new season in law school.

MINOR IN CHINESE STUDIES

Linel Anne D. Ricohermoso

“The great moments of your life won't necessarily be the things you do, they'll also be the things that happen to you... You see, the universe has a plan kids, and that plan is always in motion... All these little parts of the machine constantly working, making sure that you end up exactly where you're supposed to be, exactly when you're supposed to be there. The right place at the right time.”
(Ted Mosby, How I Met Your Mother)
And I'm thankful that the universe has led me to the Ateneo.