

Kimberly D. Del Rosario

Kim is everyone's friend—she is a burst of sunshine in a room, removing all dull moments. She is known for being bubbly, and is the one who will tell you the hard, cold and painful truth because she loves you too much to watch you walking away blindly from what is real. She is a person who stands firm in what she believes in. Kim has grown immeasurably far in the past years. She is a diamond in the rough, and a woman destined for greatness. (D. Punzalan)

MINOR IN DEVELOPMENT MANAGEMENT

Jerchiel Wilfred M. Delgado

Hi, I'm Jerch! Never be afraid to say hi. Say hi to new adventures. Say hi to new faculty, friends and strangers. Say hi to new challenges and risks. Say hi to new beginnings. Say hi to new chances and opportunities. Embrace them with arms wide open. Never let them go, for they could be the paths to success. They could form the foundation of moving up. I may graduate from this prestigious institution but I will never say goodbye. Rather, I will say hi to the bright future that awaits me.
