

MINOR IN ENTERPRISE DEVELOPMENT

Pamela Faye R. Pantì

Now it's time to rest my sails, and remember the journey: to all the people that I have met and the relationships I have built, for the triumphant conquests, lessons learned, and all the places this journey has taken me, despite the hard times, and with all that has been said and done. Thank you, Ateneo! Today, I celebrate, for tomorrow I sail again.

MINOR IN FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT

Bianca Marcella C. Paras

Bianca wastes no opportunity; it's easy to say that she made the most out of her time in college. Despite her heavy workload and busy schedule, she always found time for the things she loved: ultimate, food, friends, and alcohol. Her strong sense of commitment and persistence was truly admirable – this was evident not only in training, but also in her roles as the manager of SP White and president of Ateneo Ultimate.
