My voyage in the Ateneo was a journey of breaking through the surface and coming out of my shell. I braved through this vast blue sea, sailing in unfamiliar waters, surrounded in the ferocity and brilliance of those around me. For a time, I struggled to find my own rhythm alongside the crashing of the waves. The many striking shades of blue that this sea revealed are colors that have painted me in more ways than one. Now, here I am, holding my place amongst the tides. The next journey awaits.
