

MINOR IN ENTERPRISE DEVELOPMENT

I like drinking coffee and watching films. College was pretty chill, but it was fun.

MINOR IN SUSTAINABILITY

Joshua O. Torres

It feels so long since I last walked down this stretch. I can see many changes – new establishments, new people. In the short time I was away, I grew. I first left home with a huge ego and an arrogant dream, but I return now with a humbled heart and a noble vision. I have seen the land which was promised, I have seen an inheritance beyond my dreams. And I am ecstatic to sail out into the unknown seas with glowing eyes, a child-like wonder, and a Father who loves me.
