

Joseph Thomas C. Miclat

We live in a time where hate can propagate so easily
 In a time wherein sadness and fear are everywhere
 In a time where it becomes so hard to love one another
 In a time where we must love
 “Love is love is love is love is love is love is love is love, cannot be killed or swept aside.” (Lin-Manuel Miranda)

Socorro Margarita T. Rodrigo

The first thing that comes to my mind when talking about Socorro would of course, be her love of physics and the sea. After five years, I can say that she’s more than what words can describe in just one page. Even after the late night study sessions, random cafe hangouts, talks about life, school, and more, I’ve only scratched the surface. She’s cultured, determined, interesting; but also down-to-earth and great at conversations – a person as deep and relentless as the ocean itself. (J. Fernando)
