

Miguel Franco B. Chavez

Franco never fails to amaze everyone with his talent in music. He is also known for brightening peoples' lives with his plethora of corny jokes, all of which end up being funny because of how he says it.

Above all, Franco is an inspiration to everyone. He graces through the challenges of life, making sure to carry a big smile and a positive outlook all the time. He's one of the most resilient people I know.

The world is a colorful world, thanks to Franco. He's the rainbow after every rain.

Cyrille Luqueles S. Chua

We all may have countless mountains ahead of us, but I will always remember and be thankful for all that I have learned in the journey up and down this hill.
