

MINOR IN JAPANESE STUDIES

Rex Victor O. Puentespina, Jr.

If there's one thing that Rex values the most, it would be integrity. This is apparent in his clothes, taste in music, business sense and overall outlook in the things that he does. Others see this as hardheadedness, but they don't know what's up. He sees beauty before it happens. Regardless of what others think or say, Rex has his own aesthetic and creative ideal that he wants to share with us all. I can't wait to see it happen and flourish. Big things are coming.

Down from the hill after 16 years; looking forward to the next chapter. Thank you, Ateneo, for the best years.
