As I end my journey in this university, I thank Ateneo not only for the accomplishments, discoveries, and joys that filled my heart with hope and strength, but also for the trials, failures, and disappointments that pushed me to be the person I am today. My challenges have pushed me further than my accomplishments ever will. I will always bring with me the resilience, passion, and fortitude I found in Ateneo as I aspire to continue serving my God by serving others.

Ateneo pushed me to my limits. It tested me, broke me, and brought me on the verge of tears, sometimes forcing me to question why I chose to go to this school in the first place. But at the same time, it's also the place that helped me find myself; it's where I found so much love and life, where I've found lifelong friends who changed my life for the better. Looking back, I don't think I would have it any other way.
