

MINOR IN CHINESE STUDIES; MINOR IN FINANCE

Marc Stevenson T. Chow

Four years ago, it was just a dream.
Then...
I passed...
I decided...
I climbed...
I failed...
I tried...
I survived...
Four years later, I am graduating.
To God be the Glory.

MINOR IN ENGLISH LITERATURE

Chelsea Alexis E. Chu

Gregory is the living definition of practical and to the point. There's little room for sentimental fluff in his life. Every move he makes, step he takes, word he slowly breathes life to, has a purpose in this chaotic world. That's why being his friend is so valuable. You know that your place in his life means he cares about you, in his own silent, serious way. So when he goes out of his way to talk to you, to see you, to support you, you can't help but feel loved. It's Greg's charm. (J. Chua)
