

Angelica Grace A. Saulog

Angie seems reserved, or even uptight, but she's really one of the best people you'll meet. She believes in you when you doubt yourself, laughs at your stupidity but has your back, and loves you even if you annoy her. She's high maintenance, but easygoing and sets goals with an infectious willpower that makes you want to go for your own! She's accomplished, yet still on the go, making me think she can do anything (–not!) There'll be much more to her, and she'll surprise you every time.

MINOR IN FRENCH STUDIES, MINOR IN DEVELOPMENT MANAGEMENT

Danielle Cana D. Sianghio

Your go-to, all-around, superstar-next-door: That's Dana. Expect nothing less but to be blown away by her talent, vibrance, and unwavering smile. Through every wave of activities and academic life, she is fueled by her compassion for others and a drive for creating sustainable impact on the world, with power naps in between. Her bravery, optimism, and grit are what make Dana special, and a pleasure it is to watch her sail through and conquer every storm in her fight towards poverty alleviation.