Maria Teresa Alberto Anjelina M. Garcia

To Cale, Diana, Arnel, Kien, Den, Maia, Sadie, Dames, Joyce, Sam, Ivan, and AF: You mended my sails tattered by all-nighters, cramming sessions, and deadlines. You patched up the holes in my hull just as I was about to sink in a sea of papers, orals, presentations, exams, and thesis. You were the anchor that kept me from drifting and held me in place through the storm that was college. Thank you for helping me keep my ship together.

“Few things are impossible to diligence and skill. Great works are performed not by strength, but perseverance.” (Samuel Johnson)
