

Roche Geraldyn L. Chua

Known as an MH survivor by Q1, a demure & hair-flipping housemate by Project House, a supportive friend & a loving daughter/sister to her family. Apart from these, Roche is one of the most down to earth people you will meet. Unlike most who spend their time in Rizal or Matteo, she is a frequent face in JSEC. Although she prefers working backstage, the privilege of seeing her passion and dedication is inspiring. A person you'll be blessed to have; she's one whose company you'll treasure the most.

As we go our own roads, all that we are certain of are the memories of today. It's crazy to think that everything in history had to happen as it did for us to be at this point in time, but I stand here now, and I am right where I need to be. Wherever we end up, we will look back at these years, and in these moments revel in awe as we experience nothing less than the infinity of our youth. It's been a quite a splendid trip with you guys. Cheers to yesterday, today, and forever. Cheers to us.
