Everyone says that high school will be the best four years of your life. But I beg to differ. It was in college where I learned the magic of Kopiko 78, Casio calculators, and Google Sheets. It was here where I learned that I could do my best and still be the worst. It was here where I spent countless evenings commenting on org DP's. It was here where I sat outside De La Costa talking to myself as I waited for my oral exam. Ultimately, it was here where I learned that my limit does not exist.

"All I ask of you, especially young people, is one thing. Please don't be cynical. I hate cynicism – it's my least favorite quality and it doesn't lead anywhere. Nobody in life gets exactly what they thought they were going to get. But if you work really hard and you're kind, amazing things will happen. I'm telling you, amazing things will happen." (C. O'Brien)
