

Christa Mae R. Baniqued

Christa never fails to surprise people. May it be acing her majors after a night of ataxx, surviving a grueling finals week on nothing but coffee, or going out of the way for street food, each time is always a unique experience. I have yet to share a dull moment with this person; every single one has been meaningful and worth remembering. Given her commitment to excellence, strong character, and exceptional abilities, I know she will continue to surprise people long after college.

Here's to all the failure and self-doubt brought about in all of the four years, for these are what make you realize your strength.
Here's to being men for others, and realizing that the others are what make the man.
Here's to being your own self, your greatest competitor and worst critic.
Here's to the future, for the experience of life is a limitless journey the likes of which we have yet to see.
