“When you know how to die, you know how to live.”

Yup, those sleepless nights, countless papers, coffee overdoses, never-ending traffic jams, group projects (and the freeloaders), terror profs, and exams/orals jitters felt like my last days on Earth...

But I survived and I’ve never felt so alive. Thank you for that roller coaster ride, Ateneo.

“Calculating his every move, Jess is the friend you can always trust” (RR).

Call him JC or Jess, the occasionally funny friend with the oddest obsession for knowledge. He’s a proud scholar and journalist who seeks to unravel the untarnished truth. With a burning passion of a torch flame, he is a staunch advocate of education and inclusive development in the country.

/Against the crash of the waves, his voyage continues until he docks at the shores where paradise awaits. He keeps on sailing./
