

Anton Miguel C. De La Torre

“I know you’re all feeling the darkness here today. But there’s no reason to give in. No matter what you’ve heard, this process will not take years. In my heart, I know we cannot be defeated, because there is an answer that will open the door. There is a way around this system. This is a test of our patience and commitment.”

(Don Draper, Mad Men)

Reynaleigh H. De Los Reyes

Sometimes a light shower, Reyna is gentle and a friend among friends. Sometimes a whistling wind, Reyna chimes in and makes the conversation fresh. Sometimes a tempest, Reyna asserts a spontaneous air that just seems too unpredictable.

Four years have passed and this deluge is in need of new fields to explore. Reyna, as fleeting as she may be, will never forget how lively things have been.
