Maria Beatriz E. Ang

I remember waking up early in the morning to finish a paper, dragging myself from class to class after an all-nighter, managing a whole project for an organization, crying in the Faura bathroom after getting my first F, and celebrating when I got my first A. Ateneo gave me all sorts of experiences. The past four years have been full of ups and downs, and I could not have survived without the support of my friends and professors. Thank you Ateneo, for molding me into what I am today.

Anne Clara B. Arrobio

Anne is the anchor that keeps one in place in spite of all the craziness that life can bring. She has surely left a mark on a lot of people that she has encountered in the past four years. She is the kind of person that cannot be forgotten, and one would be surprised that such a small girl can have such a big impact on people's lives. After all the laughs, the tears, the heart-to-hearts, and everything in between, she goes down from the hill as someone you fight to keep in your life.
