

Jose Emmanuel A. Querido

For all the tests and orals I died in, all the profs I loved and hated, for the opportunities to go outside of my comfort zone, and the friends I've made for life; for all of this and everything else, thank you, Ateneo. How lucky am I to have found something so hard to say goodbye to.

Claudia Jumelle E. Quinto

Claudia is the perfect epitome of a strong and independent woman. No matter what comes her way, she gracefully faces it. She has so much love to give in her heart – to her family, her friends, and also to the communities that she cares for. She has dedicated her life for the goodness of those around her and she never fails to make others feel that they have someone to lean on. Clauds is definitely a keeper; consider yourself blessed if you ever become close to her. (J. Santiago & M. Solidum)
