

MINOR IN CHINESE STUDIES; MINOR IN FINANCE

Marc Stevenson T. Chow

Four years ago, it was just a dream.
Then...
I passed...
I decided...
I climbed...
I failed...
I tried...
I survived...
Four years later, I am graduating.
To God be the Glory.

And now I have learned to spread my wings. Amid the self-doubt, the breakdowns, the failures, the heartbreaks, and the “almost is never enough”s, I will continue to fly higher than I’ve known and farther than I’ve been. To my dream school since I was a kid, thank you. Thank you for all the laughter and tears, for molding me into the person I am today, and for teaching me how to fly.
