MINOR IN INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS

Lorena Ann E. Escaño

If you're looking for a friend for the long run, you've come to the right person. LA has the ability to turn bad days into celebrations, strangers into friends, and school into home. She's not the loudest, but the beauty in her strange puns, smile plastered on her face, and love she unconditionally gives away don't need to beg for attention. LA's come a long way since entering Ateneo, and it's an indubitable truth that friends like me have changed for the better thanks to her.
