You are always the student in life. Looking back, I did not expect that I would get this far. There were a lot of struggles, but I persevered through the challenges. I found out that it was okay to fail and through these failures, I was humbled and I learned a lot. The journey will still go on and with every step I'll take, I will continue to grow. To my parents, this one's for you.

Destiny doesn't open up paths for you. You make your own way to be where you want to be and who you want to be. There will be a lot of struggles along the way, but at the end of the day you should never lose sight of your dreams.
