

Renzo Pocholo C. Salao

Five hundred characters are not enough to describe my sixteen years in Ateneo, let alone all the trouble and turmoil, the headaches and heartbreaks, the great friends, and the grand times that made my ride down from the hill a wild one. Those moments and memories may have come and gone, but they will forever be part of the man I've become today. If I learned anything from this school, it's that this journey I've embarked on definitely does not end with these few hundred characters.

"I would be brave, for there is much to dare." (H. Walter)
Thank you for making me who I am today, Ateneo. Amid the failures and difficulties, you taught me to never give up – and I won't. Cheers to the next chapter of my life.
