

MINOR IN HISTORY

Resurreccion R. Velarde

In Ateneo, I have learned that in order to mean something, life has to be lived in the service of others in order to make this world a better place. Thank you to this school, my mentors, my friends, my family, and everyone else along the way for giving me the space to learn in and out of the classroom. I have cried many times out of both sorrow and joy over the past few years. In any case, I can say that I'll keep fighting for the Good. I'll also keep singing and drumming a song somewhere.

MINOR IN SUSTAINABILITY; MINOR IN LITERATURE

Bernice Marie S. Violago

Bernice knows what she wants and will do her best to attain her goals. This has turned her to becoming a passionate, diligent, and intelligent person who is grounded on her beliefs and principles. She works hard to attain her aspirations, and is a quick thinker when a challenge passes her way. She is a perfectionist, but she is human. She has comical moments, where you'd notice a spark in her that enjoys life with no pretense. She is a character of her own. She is simply her.
