In Ateneo, I have learned that in order to mean something, life has to be lived in the service of others in order to make this world a better place. Thank you to this school, my mentors, my friends, my family, and everyone else along the way for giving me the space to learn in and out of the classroom. I have cried many times out of both sorrow and joy over the past few years. In any case, I can say that I'll keep fighting for the Good. I'll also keep singing and drumming a song somewhere.
