If there's one thing that I've learned in my four years of college in the Ateneo, it's that life is too short to keep delaying. Sometimes you don't get a tomorrow or a next time. So find something to live for and commit to it. It could be something that brings you joy. Something that brings you love. Something that brings you life. Maybe even all of the above. Just find it, choose it constantly, and stand by it. Never ever let it go.
