“Believe in yourself. Not in the you who believes in me. Not in the me who believes in you. Believe in the you who believes in yourself.” (Kamina, Tengen Toppa Gurren Lagann)

Mind over matter. I always wanted to do everything I could. There were times when I got tired and thought I couldn't do any more. Some of those times, I gave in to that thought. Other times, no matter how tired I was, or whenever giving up felt like the better option, I'd surprise myself by pushing past it. As I graduate, I will continue to do what I can and much more.
