

Joel Jude C. Alarde

Don't be fooled by his quiet demeanor or his cuddly appearance. Jude has one of the sharpest of tongues, which is always ready with the wittiest comebacks. He never fails to light up the room with his boisterous laugh and his colorful personality. Even though he's sassy at times, he's got a big heart. He is so endearing and loving, it is no surprise that he has numerous close friends, especially with his habit of hugging. But that's who he is, a teddy bear with a fiery tongue.
