Embrace your quirks - this I learned through every situation and every challenge I faced. My friends and professors helped me realize that being a genuine person is indeed valued by people, no matter who they are or where they're from. The road to success is never easy and always full of uncertainty, but as long as I stay true to who I am, I know I can reach my biggest dreams and aspirations. Thank you, Ateneo, for this journey filled with life and love. I know mine has only just begun.

“Si Kristel? Matalino yun!” But beyond just her brains, there’s so much more to this lady. This strong-willed woman is filled with determination and passion which allows her to surpass every obstacle that comes her way. Yet despite all her achievements, she is never happy with just her own success; she cares for and lifts up other people to allow them to realize their own potentials, as well. Perhaps, rather than “smart,” “confident” would be a better word to describe her.”
