We are all inventors, each sailing out on a voyage of discovery, guided each by a private chart, of which there is no duplicate. The world is all gates, all opportunities. (Ralph Waldo Emerson)

Felisa Joanna L. Bunac

From fangirling because of Robert Downey Jr. to stress-eating from doing acads, Felisa experienced it all. Just like the waves of the ocean, her life has experienced ups and downs. She also believes that “the past is not important” because she can forget almost anything— even while talking mid-sentence. Thank God for her family and friends who are patient enough to listen and care, and to her mentors that always guide her every step of the way. Cheers to Ateneo, for making all of this possible.
