As a new journey awaits me outside the halls of Ateneo de Manila, allow me to express my deepest gratitude to the people who made my college experience worthwhile. To our Almighty God, my family and friends, my N2013 brothers, Block K 2013, Ateneo Economics Association, Lay - thank you so much!

I will leave Ateneo with lessons learned, with dreams that have yet to be accomplished, and with renewed enthusiasm in life. Dream and dare, live and love.

MINOR IN JAPANESE STUDIES

Juan Pedro M. Avila

If someone would make me choose, I don't think that I would be able to pick a favorite memory from my entire college experience. There were too many laughs, too many tears, too many friends, too many terror probs, and way too much alcohol. No one memory could encapsulate just how beautiful my college experience was. Ateneo has given me so much and in a breath, she has formed me into who I am. But there is one memory that will stick with me forever: that Hans Braga stole my write up.
