

MINOR IN ENTERPRISE DEVELOPMENT

Christiana Marie C. Tanchanco

Love is a person, a place, an action, a moment, and a feeling all at once. In Ateneo, I found love.

MINOR IN ENTERPRISE DEVELOPMENT

Igino Herminio O. Tantoco

This school's b-best students have spent their last 4 to 16 years living their Ateneo experience with as much love, adventure, and passion for life as possible—all these while consistently choosing to take the stairs. From being first in the classroom to being first up the next mountain, Gio is, was, and always will be everyone's ideal Atenean—not only because of his quick wit or his knack for taking on a challenge, but because as much as he won in life, he never put himself first.
