

Andrew Dean Z. Peckson

Thanks to Ateneo, I've gained something important. I largely went through life pretty lightheartedly, not caring about much. However, the friends I've made here are ones that can't be replaced and I am truly grateful to have met them. These five years would've been more of the same if not for them so I'd like to say thanks; the person I am today wouldn't exist if not for you guys.

Joshua Kane G. Pineda

This was supposed to be a blank page. I put this sentence to fill up the void. Now that this page is complete, so is my college life. Onwards to the next part of life.