

MINOR IN INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS

Maria Sandra C. Gojar

In Ateneo, we learn to face difficulties head-on. We emerge, battered and bruised, but always graceful, always more. The world rarely gets any better, but we do every day. Over the past four years, that has made all the difference. What a sculpture. What a ride. Thank you, Ateneo.

MINOR IN CHINESE STUDIES

Sherry-Anne C. Gonida

Sherry is a kind, generous, and loving person, one who extends a helping hand and never expects anything in return. Resilience has always been her strongest suit. She never backs down, and no matter what challenge she faces, she always comes out on top, unceasingly growing stronger and more independent. She is someone who passionately chases after her dreams. She has a great determination that will carry her far in life and enable her to reach what others only dream of achieving. (S. Gonida)
