

MINOR IN MARKETING

Kaye Angeli C. Sung

Summing up everything, I would have to say that most of all, I am grateful. Going to school is one thing, but going to a school that leaves you wanting to learn more is another. I've faced my what-ifs and why-nots, I've seen my dusks turn into dawns, I've pushed past my limits, and I've lived beyond my comfort zone. Salamat, Ateneo. My mind is full, but my heart is overflowing.

I sleep late
because I sleep in the afternoon.
I love sleep.
