My Ateneo journey has been a rollercoaster ride and has brought out the best and worst in me. From trying to fit in and be cool to embracing difference and weirdness, from wanting to be rich to aiming to be poor for the poor, this journey repeatedly destroyed and reconstructed my beliefs, humbling me to create a better version of myself. It taught me to take a step back, understand myself better, and put everything into perspective. Thank you, Ateneo, for always keeping me grounded.

MINOR IN FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT; MINOR IN DECISION SCIENCE

Thank you, Ateneo. It's been an incredible journey of self-discovery and learning — one that I wouldn't have gotten anywhere else. Gaby out.
